

Dahms Memorial Foundation Scholarship

Information Sheet

This application is valid annually to fund registration fees for Dahms Memorial Foundation events.

What is the Dahms Memorial Foundation Scholarship?

The Dahms Memorial Foundation is an award given to parliamentarians to attend in person Dahms Memorial Foundation events.

Who was Lester L. Dahms and what is the sponsoring organization?

After Les died in 1991, Dahms and Bierbaum Associates was disbanded and some of the stockholders wanted to create a lasting memorial to his memory. The Lester L. Dahms Memorial Foundation was then established. Because of Les's deep commitment to education in the field of parliamentary procedure, the trustees have established annual workshops to provide quality educational opportunities for those individuals wanting to further their understanding of parliamentary procedure.

The NAP Educational Foundation (NAPEF) is the sponsoring organization. NAPEF's mission is to fund and support NAP and others to have educational programs that promote effective meetings.

What does the scholarship fund?

The Dahms Memorial Foundation Scholarship funds registration fees only for in-person attendance at Dahms Memorial Foundation events.

How is the application accessed?

The application form for the Dahms Memorial Foundation Scholarship may be found on the NAPEF website napef.org.

Who may apply and how often?

Parliamentarians who plan to attend the Dahms Memorial Foundation event may apply for the scholarship. A parliamentarian may receive the scholarship award one time.

How many annual scholarships may be awarded?

NAPEF Scholarship Committee may award up to two scholarships annually.

How is the application submitted?

The applicant shall submit the application electronically to the NAPEF Scholarship Committee Chairman, the NAPEF Scholarship Committee Coordinator, and the NAPEF President.

How will the scholarship be received?

Applications received before August 1 may be considered as a group for available scholarships for reimbursement of registration fees after attendance is verified.
