

STUDENT INTERN SCHOLARSHIP

Information Sheet

This application is valid in odd-numbered years in conjunction with the biennial convention of the National Association of Parliamentarians (NAP).

What is the Student Intern Scholarship?

The Student Intern Scholarship is an award for interns who participate in the NAP biennial convention and pass the NAP membership exam.

What is the sponsoring organization?

The NAP Educational Foundation (NAPEF) is the sponsoring organization. NAPEF's mission is to fund and support NAP and others to have educational programs that promote effective meetings.

What does the scholarship fund?

The Student Intern Scholarship funds the first year of NAP and Association dues for an NAP student partnership organization intern. The scholarship does NOT pay local dues.

How is the application accessed?

The application form for the Student Intern Scholarship may be found on the NAPEF website - napef.org.

Who may apply and how often?

An NAP youth partnership organization intern may apply by completing the following:

- a) attend the NAP biennial convention;
- b) pass the NAP membership exam before, during, or after the convention;
- c) submit the NAP membership application; and
- d) submit the scholarship application.

The intern may apply once.

How is the application submitted?

The intern shall submit the Student Intern Scholarship application via email following the biennial convention to the NAPEF Scholarship Committee Chairman.

Applications must be received 30 days following the biennial convention.

How will the scholarship be received?

If an applicant is selected, NAPEF will pay NAP directly the prorated amount for the remainder of the year following the biennial convention and the full amount for NAP and Association dues of the following year.
